A Fire That Burns. Excitement prevailed in the commis-sion house of Hudson & Co., on Cary street just below Thirteenth, for awhile yesterday morning.

A gasoline-stove was burning in a small room to ripen bananas, when it was seen to be in a light blaze. Mr. Walliam F. Hudson ran in to extinguish the flames and in doing so got his hands badly burned. He went to the drugstore of Powers & Taylor, where Dr. Staples met him and dressed his burns. The fire did no damage to the building or goods therein.
